Mr. Mark Patrick Roach
Isis Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
2292 Faraday Avenue
Carlsbad, CA 92008

Dear Mr. Roach:

We are in receipt of your communication dated March 18, 2005, requesting an extension of your limited recognition which expires May 1, 2005.

Your application reveals that you are a nonimmigrant who is temporarily residing in the United States. You are present in the United States on an H-1B visa issued to nonimmigrant aliens who are authorized to be employed in the United States by a specific employer, and are subject to employment restrictions described in one or more sections of Chapter 1 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations. 8 CFR § 247a.12(b). You are authorized to be employed in the United States by only Isis Pharmaceuticals, Inc., in connection with the preparation and prosecution of patent applications wherein Isis Pharmaceuticals, Inc. is the assignee of the entire interest. Your authorization for employment is valid to May 1, 2008. Accordingly, you could not accept clients or employment as a registered patent agent or attorney other than the clients of your present employer. Further, "[a]ny unauthorized employment by a nonimmigrant constitutes a failure to maintain status within the meaning of . . ." 8 U.S.C. § 1251(a)(9) and 8 CFR § 214.1(e). Accordingly, as long as you remain in the United States on a visa limiting your employment to a specific employer, you are precluded by the terms of your visa under 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15) from being registered.

In view of the limitations placed upon you by your visa, it would appear that you would not be free, as a registered practitioner, to be employed by other than your present employer, Isis Pharmaceuticals, Inc., or to acquire your own clients. You are not being registered as a patent attorney or patent agent. However, inasmuch as you have passed the examination and demonstrated possession of the required technical qualifications, pursuant to 37 CFR § 10.9(b), you are hereby granted limited recognition through May 1, 2008, to prepare and prosecute patent applications wherein Isis Pharmaceuticals, Inc., is the assignee of record of the entire interest, and a registered practitioner, who is an employee of Isis Pharmaceuticals, Inc., is the attorney or agent of record in the applications. However, if prior to May 1, 2008, your employer changes, your visa status changes, or you cease to reside in the United States, your limited recognition shall automatically expire.

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

Limited recognition is granted for a period not to exceed your authorization for employment. If, on May 1, 2008, your authorization for employment has been extended, and you continue to legally reside in the United States on an H-1B visa, you may request that your limited recognition be extended for a period not to exceed the extended authorization for employment. Such a request must be in writing to the Director of Enrollment and Discipline, and should verify your visa status, employment, and your correct address.

Consistent with the terms of 37 CFR § 10.11(a), you are required to promptly notify the Director of any change of address. See 37 CFR § 10.23(c)(14).

Enclosed is a copy of the original document granting you limited recognition. A copy of this document must be filed in each patent application you prosecute. Once the document has been entered into the file of a patent application, you must make reference to it whenever you correspond with the Office during prosecution of the application. The original document granting limited recognition is on file in the Office of Enrollment and Discipline. If you cease to lawfully reside in the United States, if your visa expires, or you change employers, whichever occurs first, you must promptly file a notice of the same in each patent application in which a copy of the limited recognition has been filed.
